Hospital, San Francisco, 1844-1845

Miller, James, 1844-1845
An hospital for the poor. A description of the hospital, its location, its management, and its success. By James Miller, M.D.
The hospital was founded in 1844, and has since that time been a source of great benefit to the poor of San Francisco. It is situated in the city, and is managed by a board of trustees. The hospital is open to all who are unable to pay for their treatment, and it is a great relief to the poor of the city. The hospital is a great success, and it is a great credit to the city of San Francisco.
